ANNUAL REPORT 2017

mission

Our mission is to lead Latina victims of domestic violence to safety, empower them to live free of violence, and reach and sustain their full potential. We pursue our mission by raising community awareness, engaging in activism and providing culturally competent services.

communications & outreach

The Communications and Outreach Team engages community stakeholders to deepen their understanding of intimate partner and sexual violence within Latinx communities, especially as it impacts immigrants. Our survivor-led Promotoras team provides peer education and outreach to connect others to help and healing. All our materials and presentations are available in both English and Spanish and provide information about how to get assistance.

residential programs

We operate two residential programs for survivors and their children. Morivivi is an emergency shelter that provides immediate, short-term safety for people fleeing violence. Casa Sandra is a transitional housing program that provides a bridge to permanent housing for survivors leaving shelter. Both programs provide supportive services to help single adults and families stabilize after crisis.

non-residential programs

VIP's confidential, community-based programs in Bronx, Manhattan and Queens provide individual and group counseling, advocacy, and referrals for legal and mental health services. Our Economic Justice and Survival Program supports survivors to establish economic security through small business development and financial counseling, while exploring the connection between trauma and money management.
